Press Release

“Un Trésor à la Carte” : A charity auction for the benefit of the rescue at sea

Paris, October 20th, 2024 – The association SEAtizens.org is proud to announce the second edition of “Un Trésor à la Carte” (“A Treasure on the Chart”), a charity art auction to support sea rescue operations. The event will take place on December 3, 2024, at the Lafayette Anticipations Foundation in Paris and will also be streamed live via Drouot Live.

The aim of this auction is to support three key associations: three key organizations dedicated to saving lives at sea: SOS Méditerranée, the SNSM (French National Sea Rescue Society), and Navire Avenir. Every cent raised from this auction will go directly to these three organizations.

The event, hosted by the renowned auction house Millon, will feature over 40 unique artworks created by well-known artists. Each piece will be made on a maritime chart donated and signed by prominent sailors, merging the worlds of art and the sea to support life-saving missions.

A unique fusion of art and the sea

After its first edition in 2019, which raised almost 50,000 euros, “Un Trésor à la Carte” is a charity event combining the worlds of art and the sea. Participating artists are required to produce their work on a nautical chart donated by a sailor, making each piece a unique artistic and maritime creation.

Sea rescue: a life-saving mission

Rescue operations at sea are often carried out in extreme and dangerous conditions by organizations like SNSM and SOS Méditerranée. Each year, these groups save thousands of lives, thanks to the dedication of both professional and volunteer rescuers. By supporting these organizations, you’re directly contributing to saving lives. The Navire Avenir project aims to build the first vessel specifically designed for high-sea rescue operations.

“A work of art can save lives” – Jérémy Bertaud

Jérémy Bertaud, president of the association Seatizens.org, emphasizes the importance of this initiative: “Sea rescue is a cause close to our hearts. Through this auction, we have a unique opportunity to combine beauty and solidarity. Each artwork is not only a creative piece but also a tangible contribution to helping those who risk their lives to save others. We hope this initiative resonates with the public and that everyone understands the importance of supporting these sea heroes.”

Famous artists and sailors joined us!

This auction will bring together works by renowned artists who have lent their talents to this cause. Prominent sailors have also joined the effort, offering their support. A full list of participating artists and sailors is provided at the end of the press release.
